

International Summer School

for educators in entrepreneurship
in culture and creative industries

The project "Creative Grasp" kindly invites you to take part in the International Summer School in Arkhangelsk, Russian Federation, which is the first in its kind event for teachers focusing on educational processes in entrepreneurship for culture and creative industries.

from 3 J
to 5 y
The Summer School will take place from 3 to 5 July 2017, drawing on the international expertise of Nordic and Russian speakers and practical trainings for creative business.

from 6 J
to 9 y
The Summer School will be followed by the actions in cooperation with the open air wooden architecture museum "Malie Korely". The museum carefully preserves the richness of the folk traditions in the Russian North and reveals inspiration for business ideas.

You are welcome to contribute to the program with your expertise when it comes to discussions on entrepreneurship in culture and creative industries.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Arkhangelsk!

*With best regards,
"Creative Grasp"
project leader
Elena Khoroshkina*

